DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

What information we collect

FOR THE CHILDREN INC. (FTC) collects and uses various information from persons donating to the FTC (donors) that includes amount donated, address, telephone number, donor comments and e-mail address. Tax laws in the United States and the State of Florida require FTC to keep contact information and contribution level of donors on file.

How we use that information

FTC will never publish, sell, trade, rent or share names (unless released for publication), e-mail or mail addresses, or telephone numbers of donors. FTC will use contact information (e-mail, telephone number and address) of donors for these purposes only:

- Distribute receipts for donations
- Thank donors for their donation
- Inform donors about upcoming fundraising and other activities of FTC
- Internal analysis and record keeping
- Reporting to relevant U.S. and State agencies (these reports are not for public inspection)
- Contact donors about changes to this policy

Staff and volunteers assume that all donations from persons are not to be publicly announced unless the donor explicitly indicates otherwise. Comments given in donor forms are published in public lists and may be used in promotional materials while comments sent to us via email, fax or telephone are kept strictly confidential. However, FTC may use properly anonymized donor information for its promotional and fundraising activities.

Financial information

All access to donor financial information is strictly limited to professional staff that needs to process those data. No such data are given to any person, organization or group who does not need to access those data.

FOR THE CHILDREN INC. (FTC) only uses online payment processing services with excellent security and strong reputations. The FTC does not store, nor does it have access to, your credit card information, bank account numbers, or other account data sent to those processing services.
